BIRTHDAY!

I LOVEE YOUU SOO MUCHH

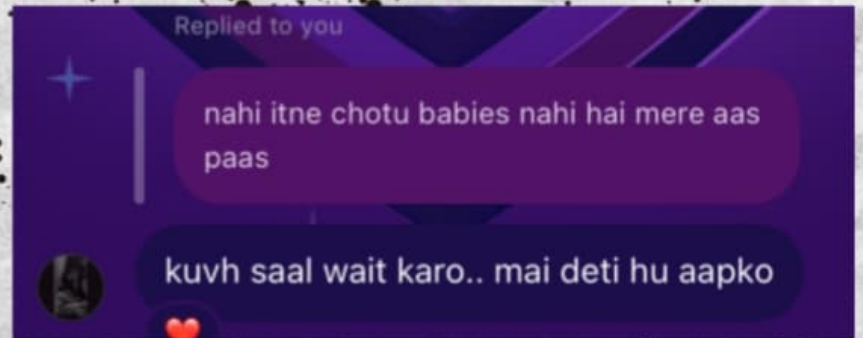

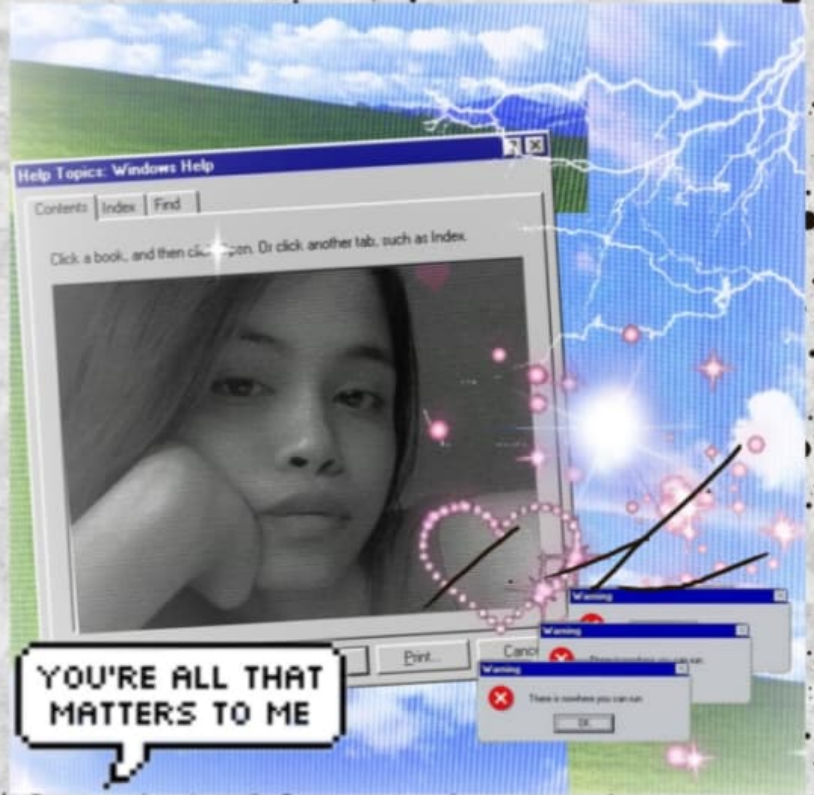

i know i wished you like a 100 times already, but here's to unlocking another chapter of your life babygirl. im always by your side and will keep rooting for you no matter what. thank you for sticking by me and trusting in me. you believed in me when i didnt. and i will never let you down. time flew by soo quick, i remember our first call like yesterday. since then, so much has changed but one thing remained constant though, your giggles when i crack the lamest of jokes. like seriously, just stop. i wont ever become funny if you keep laughing. i need to improve my joke making abilities okay? good. time for some simping now- whenever im having a low day or feel a bit down, you arrive like a bouncing ball to cheer me up. so i guess you are my low day ka ball. anyways. you already know how much i love you and how much you mean to me.
